SUNDAY 27TH MAY 2001 THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD (World Communications Day)

ST. MARY & ST. JOHN
STATION ROAD

*Jesus ascended to heaven so that his influence and power might be felt not just in one place but in all the world.
Today He is present everywhere through his Church, bringing all people to God.*

CORK AND ROSS MISSION COLLECTION

In 1957 Pope Pius XII called on the Church in Europe and North America to come to the help of the churches in the Third World. While the developed world at the time had an abundance of vocations to the priesthood the developing world was experiencing an acute shortage. The Pope suggested the priests from the developed world might be sent on loan to Dioceses in missionary lands.

The response was so generous that it became quite commonplace to find priests from dioceses in North America working in Central and South America.

Cork & Ross took the idea further by taking over responsibility for a whole territory within a South American Diocese. The Peru Mission became one of Cork's favourite projects and unlike the missionary efforts of many other dioceses, it has endured for thirty years, surviving terrorism, earthquake and political upheaval.

Today, four Cork priests work in Peru in the same area where the founder missionaries, who included our late Bishop began the enterprise. Four more Cork & Ross priests work in Ecuador - a country which, as its name indicates, lies precisely on the equator.

Many sisters for Cork have also worked on the Mission over the past thirty years. Both the Mercy and Bon Secours Sisters have increased their numbers by receiving into their Orders large numbers of Peruvian girls. So successful have the Bon Secours been in this regard that their Peru community has become an independent province under a Peruvian superioress.

It is comparatively rare for Diocesan Missionary projects to last as long as that of Cork and Ross which has been going strong for over thirty years. Initial enthusiasm wanes. Other areas of religious activity come into vogue. Volunteers become scarce. How does one explain the perseverance of the Cork and Ross Mission? Under the grace of God there are two possible explanations: the continuous flow of volunteer priests and nuns and the unfailing financial backing by the faithful in Cork. Without the generous support of the May collection year after year the Peru Mission would have ceased to exist long ago. This weekend that annual collection comes round again. You can rest assured that your contribution will be put to the best possible use to bring help and hope to the most needy in our mission areas.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

PRIEST

With confidence, let us bring our prayers before God, the Most High.

READER

For those baptised at Easter, that they may carry the joy and hope of this time in their hearts.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For missionaries all over the world, and those to whom they minister, that they may be filled with the power of the Holy Spirit.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For absent friends, those separated from us by miles or oceans, that God may sustain them, until the day we see them again.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For ourselves, as we prepare to celebrate Pentecost next Sunday, that the Spirit may fill our hearts anew.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For all our loved ones who have died, that where Christ the Saviour has gone, they may soon follow.

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

For our own particular needs, which we remember now in silence.....

Lord, hear us;

Lord, graciously hear us.

PRIEST

Lord Most High, great king over all the earth, you are ever ready to help your people in their distress; hear and grant the prayers we make, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THEY WENT BACK TO JERUSALEM FULL OF JOY (Gospel)

It seems strange that, after Jesus was taken from their sight, the apostles returned home full of joy. But witnesses to Good News should not be gloomy. The angels had told them that he would return as they had seen him go. They were to tell the world about the hope his call holds for us.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

27 Sunday Acts. 1:1-11. Ps. 46. Eph. 1:17-23. or Heb. 9:24-28. 10:19-23.

Lk. 24:46-53. Lect I:556

"The Ascension of Christ means our own salvation as well; where the glorious Head has gone before, the body is called to follow in hope. Let us therefore exult, beloved, as is fitting, and let us rejoice in devout thanksgiving. For on this day not only have we been confirmed in our possession of paradise, but we have even entered heaven in the person of Christ; through his grace we have regained far more than we had lost through the devil's hatred."

St. Leo the Great, Sermon 73:4.

28 Monday Acts. 16:11-15. Ps. 149. Jn. 15:26-16:4. Lect I:576

Jesus understands the fear of his disciples as they face the world. The Spirit of truth is with us to help speak up for our faith in the face of opposition, ridicule or indifference.

29 Tuesday Acts. 16:22-34. Ps. 137. Jn. 16:5-11. Lect I:578

The Spirit is the Christian's support and strength in the development of the life of faith.

30 Wednesday Acts. 17:15. 22-18:1. Ps. 148. Jn. 16:12-15. Lect I:580

St. Paul preached to the citizens of Athens about their unknown God, but they preferred to think about it all at a later time. The Spirit continues with the Church, helping us to interpret the signs of the times. We must always be ready to listen.

31 Thursday Zeph. 3:14-18. or Rom. 12:9-16. Ps. Is. 12:2-6. Lk. 1:39-56.

Lect II:1040

"Mary, bearing the sacred Presence like the Ark of the Covenant, journeys to Judea. The Son of God who is within her and the Holy spirit which overshadows her, like the glory and the cloud which indwelt and overshadowed the sanctuary, drive her with haste to Elizabeth. The Virgin is consumed with the desire to communicate to her relatives, who are also the poor of Yahweh, the Good News of the Messianic greeting. May we not see in Mary the first bearer of the Gospel of the Incarnation and Redemption?" Max Thurian
June 2001

1 Friday Acts. 18:9-18. Ps. 46. Jn. 16:20-23. Lect I:585

"On the day of Pentecost when the seven weeks of Easter had come to an end, Christ's Passover is fulfilled in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, manifested, given and communicated as a divine person: of his fullness, Christ, the Lord, pours out the Spirit in abundance." CCC, 731

2 Saturday Acts. 18:23-28. Ps. 46. Jn. 16:23-28. Lect I:588

Spirit is the Christian's strength and support in the development of the life of faith.

A Student's Prayer at Exam Time

You know Lord, no matter how often exams come along, it's always the same. I've been through all this before: the late nights, the cramming, the funny feeling in the pit of my stomach; and there always seems to be so much still left to do. You would think I might be getting used to it now.

I'm not asking you to make up for what I have not done Lord. What I am asking is a restful night's sleep and freedom from useless worrying. Help me to have confidence in what I have done, and to get it down during the exam in some kind of order. And while I think of it Lord, take care of all the others too! Amen.

- "God is not far from any of us since it is in him that we live and move and exist. We are all his children." (Acts 17:28) And so in confidence and trust, heavenly Father, we pray:
 - We pray for our families, teachers and friends who have supported us, especially when we were struggling or just getting by. May we too be there for each other in the coming days.
 - Jesus said: "Peace is what I leave you, it is my own peace that I give you". (John 14:27) We pray for all those who are anxious about what lies ahead, or are worried. Give us the peace of mind and heart we need to do our best.
 - "And so I prayed and understanding was given to me." (Book of Wisdom 7:7) Father, pour out your spirit of understanding and truth. Help us to strive with all our hearts to know what is pleasing to you, and when we know your will, grant us the courage and determination to do it. We pray this with our futures in mind and we place it into your hands.
