St. Mary & St. John

Sunday 08-June-2014

Pentecost Sunday

The first coming of the Holy Spirit on the Church was wind and fire and the telling of God's wonderful deeds in many tongues. The Spirit also comes as many gifts for the common good, bringing peace along with God's forgiving power.

Christ Our Light
Innishmore

Descent of the Holy Spirit

St. Luke connects with Jewish tradition which presented Pentecost as the feast of the giving of the law on Mount Sinai. According to legend a mighty wind turned to fire and a voice proclaimed the law. In a further refinement the fire split into seventy tongues of fire representing the seventy nations in the known world. The law was proclaimed not only in Israel but to all humankind. Luke saw the mighty wind and tongues of fire coming on the disciples. For Luke the mighty proclamation was not of the law but of the good news, a proclamation that has undone the sentence of Babel and reunited the scattered nations.

When promising the Holy spirit to the disciples Jesus said to them "you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but .... .. To the ends of the earth."

The key word here is power. Power was precisely what they needed At that moment they were completely powerless. They were crippled with fear and their sense of inadequacy. They felt totally incapable of carrying on the task of preaching the Gospel and witnessing to Jesus. After all they had witnessed what happened to Jesus, his crucifixion and death. They needed courage. They needed someone to empower them.

The power the wind and fire symbolise is the power of God, here they also symbolise the presence and action of God. The Holy Spirit would help them but he wouldn't do their work as disciples for them.

Reflection for Parents

This reading is like the person who got tired of hearing the same excuse: "I'm too busy." We all are given the same 24 hours each day and each one of us chooses how to spend them-of course, we have responsibilities and there are probably things we would rather do, but even so, we determine how we will fill our time. It is the same with gifts. Through the Spirit we are all given gifts and it is up to us how and for whom we will use them. It is our diversity that binds us together as children of God-each one of us using our gifts for the good of all.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

As one body in Christ, we offer up our prayers to the Father of grace who sent forth the Holy Spirit to renew the face of the earth.

Reader

For the Church: that the Holy Spirit may bind its members together in a community of faith and love.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For world leaders: that the Holy Spirit may guide their feet into the way of peace.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For all those who are imprisoned by doubt, fear inadequacy, depression, or habits of sin: that the Holy Spirit may help them to experience the joy and freedom of the children of God.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For each other: that the Holy Spirit may inspire in each of us a desire for holiness.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For students now sitting their Junior and Leaving Cert Examinations, that they feel the support of their parents, families and friends, and realise that their best is good enough.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For a moment, we remember in silence our own particular needs.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

God of power and love, on Pentecost Day you sent the Holy Spirit on the apostles, and with hearts on fire they went forth to teach the Gospel to the world. Grant that we too may experience the power of the Holy Spirit in our lives and in our world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord and renew the face of the earth.

Prayer For Students Sitting Examinations - 2014

To be offered during Mass in Ballincollig
Wednesday June to 4th to Saturday 21st

Lord, pour out your spirit of wisdom on these students;
help them to remain calm,
to attend carefully to the questions asked,
to think clearly, to remember accurately,
and to express themselves well.

We commend their studies to your powerful protection.

We implore you to grant them a quick understanding,
a safe judgement and a faithful memory.

Grant that they may reflect the best of the work they have done and the best of the teaching they have received.

Accept their best efforts in these examinations and in the great test of life on earth.

May your love be upon them O Lord,
as they place all their trust in you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Shalom – Peace

Is one of those wonderful words which speaks directly to the hearts and needs of us all. In the Old Testament, shalom already has a rich meaning: physical health, prosperity, good relationship and fertility. The shalom of the Risen Lord includes his love, his offer of forgiveness of sins and his gift of freedom from death and the fear of death. We live these gifts through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, the gift of the Risen Christ
