St. Mary & St. John

Sunday 10-February-2008

First Sunday of Lent

Jesus fast of forty days reminds us that this is a holy season of self-denial. By rejecting the devil's temptations Jesus has taught us to rid ourselves of the hidden corruption of evil, and so to share his paschal mystery in purity of heart.

Lent: Be still and know that I am God

I recently heard a story about four women who planned lunch together in a restaurant having not met for ages. Lots of time for catching up then, you might think? But All four of them brought their mobile phones. All of them had their phones activated and at various times during the lunch took calls. At one stage three of the women went outside the restaurant to continue their cellular conversations and one of them was left alone at the table having her solitary lunch. The purpose of the lunch was supposedly to spend time together, but the mobile phones destroyed that objective. Like most people over the age of about 7 in this country I have a mobile phone. I am grateful for it and use it regularly, whether in my car (legally with Bluetooth of course), or when out and about. However, it seems to me that mobiles have invaded our culture in an all-consuming way. The phone call would appear to be more important than the person standing in front of us. We never want to turn these devices off and consequently they intrude on important meetings, academic classes and often Mass. The Eucharistic liturgy we celebrate on Sunday is an interconnected series of invitations, silences, proclamations, prayers, reflections, interactions and grace. The time we spend in the church singing, listening, praying and receiving is a sacred and holy time that is intended to be outside the boundaries of everyday life. When phones start ringing in the church during the liturgy, it has the power to jolt us from the sacred into the secular. At the sound of the ring tones we are distracted and our thoughts are led to things other than the sacred and the voice of the liturgy is fractured. Obviously, my hope is that we would be mindful and remember that when we come into the church, we need to silence our phones and pagers. However, I would also like us to consider the possibility that we are generally "too plugged in." We are always speaking into a phone, wired up to an iPod or surfing the Internet, glued to the TV or engrossed with a Wii (that's the very latest interactive distraction available) – we are constantly removing ourselves from silence. When in fact, the very thing our soul needs is silence to counterbalance the noise of the world. God speaks to us in silence. I believe there is something significant about giving companions, family or teachers your undivided attention. Spending some of each day in silence, whether in prayer or just in stillness, can have a calming, healthy affect on our mind, body and spirit. Strangely, what I am suggesting seems radical and yet somewhat old fashioned. But I hope you at least consider the possibility of attempting to introduce some silence into your life so that you might hear what is truly valuable . . . . . the voice of your neighbor and your God. As we begin Lent, perhaps this is something you might try?.

Reflection for Parents

One of our primary goals as parents is to help our children discover their gifts and use them generously in a way that glorifies God. From a very early age we can remind our children of the source of their gifts and encourage them to use them humbly.

Inviting Young People

First Sunday in Lent

This Lent Trócaire's campaign highlights how the developing world is struggling to cope with changes in the climate. Global warming impacts on every one of us, but the effects are not felt equally and people living in poverty are bearing the brunt. It's time the world's poorest people got the support they need to help them cope with global warming. To support Trócaire this Lent please take a Trócaire box home with you.

Trocaire launches its annual Fast Campaign

During Lent we are called to pray and fast and to share with those who are poor or in need. When we deny ourselves the comforts we are used to it reminds us of the suffering of those who each day live without the most basic resources. This year's Trocaire 24-Hour Fast takes place on February 22nd and 23rd and will raise essential funds for life-changing development projects in the world's poorest countries.

Speaking about this year's Trocaire Fast, Bishop John Kirby, Chairman of Trocaire said, "In just 4 hours Irish people can make a real difference to the lives of communities overseas. Support for Trocaire's work is needed more than ever in helping communities that now face the combined effects of poverty and climate change. 700 million people in 43 countries are living without enough water and many of the world's poorest people are struggling to survive in extreme weather conditions which are preventing them from growing food and making a living."

To register for the Fast or get a free Fast pack log on to www.trocairefast.org, lo-call 1850 408 408 or text 24HR to 51727.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7
 The Lord God created Adam and Eve and set them in the Garden of Eden. They had all they needed, but the serpent tempted them, and they disobeyed God's command.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-19
 Just as through Adam's disobedience all became sinners, through Christ's obedience all shall become just.

Gospel: Matthew 4:1-11
 Following his baptism in the Jordan River, Jesus went out to the desert to pray and understand God's will. He was alone in the desert for 40 days and nights. Satan waited until Jesus emerged from the desert before tempting Jesus to use his powers. Of course, Jesus was hungry after fasting for 40 days, so the devil tempted him first with food. "Command these stones to become loaves of bread," was the first dare. Later the devil tempted Jesus to use his power to prove that God would send angels to help Jesus if he jumped from the top of the temple. Finally, Satan offered Jesus the glory and power of the entire world if he would but worship Satan. To each temptation, Jesus held fast to what he knew was God's will for him.

Monday 11 – Our Lady of Lourdes. On this day in 1858, 150 years ago this year, Our Lady first appeared to the 14-year-old Bernadette Soubirous. Later Bernadette was to learn that the mysterious lady was the Blessed Virgin and to hear from her lips, 'I am the Immaculate Conception'. In 1992 Pope John Paul II instituted the World Day of the Sick to be held on the commemoration of Our Lady of Lourdes. Also St Gobnait. One of the best-loved saints in West Cork, only traditions concerning her life survive. Her gifts of caring for and curing the sick have been a significant part of her cult through the centuries.

The Committee have commenced their Weekly "Litter Picks". Each week they select a different area and carry out a litter pick on Sunday mornings from 11 am to 12 noon. They will provide black bags, gloves and Litter Pickers and they ask as many people as possible to come along and lend a hand for that one hour.

The first litter pick for 2008 took place last Sunday Morning which started at the traffic lights at Coolroe Meadows and worked down both sides of the Main Road to the Roundabout at the entrance to Parknamore / Quish's Supervalu.

In that short space of time the Committee and those who assisted on the day picked 6 Black Bags of rubbish.

Today the Litter Pick will concentrate on the Link Road and those who wish to assist are asked to meet near the Shop in The Cloisters at 11 am and to give just 1 Hour to help our community as a whole.

Christian Fasting

The Christian tradition of Lent as the "Great Fast" is a very ancient and universally respected one, with clear warrant in the Bible. In the present discipline of the Catholic Church the regulations prescribe that Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are to be observed as days of fast and abstinence. Fasting means that the amount of food we eat is considerably reduced. Abstinence means that we give up a particular kind of food or drink or form of amusement. Those over eighteen are bound by the law of fasting until the beginning of their sixtieth year, while all over fourteen are bound by the law of abstinence. There are many motives for fasting: To praise God by recognising that the good things we abstain from are gifts from God; to train ourselves in self-denial for times of temptation to sin; to do penance, fasting in atonement for sin to prepare for a feast - to heighten the enjoyment. So Lent prepares for Easter. To make an act of communion with those who live in want, fasting in solidarity with them, and then contributing to the needy.

Other penitential exercises include: giving alms; abstinence from some foods or other pleasures; carrying out the duties of state; meditative reading of the scriptures or other religious books and magazines; controlling our desires for possessions that are newer, bigger, better and more automatic: controlling our desire for entertainment by TV and radio, films and spectator sport.

Thank You

I would like to acknowledge and thank all the people of the parish who have showered me with gifts, good wishes and kind thoughts on the occasion of my retirement as sacristan of the church of St. Mary & St. John. The overwhelming reaction to my departure is something I never could have imagined and I feel very privileged to be held in such esteem. My time has been marked by great satisfaction, enjoyment and happiness due to my involvement with all the Parishioners and Clergy.

Many thanks and kind regards.

Geraldine
