Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Eucharistic is the name that we give to our great act of worship; it is a name that means 'giving thanks.' Today's readings remind us that we owe God thanks not just for healing lepers two thousand years ago, but for blessing our lives with his love and restoring them with his forgiveness.

October Mission Month

The first message that Pope John Paul addressed to Ireland back in 1979, over 25 Years ago now, was a video recording for the National Mission Congress held in Knock just a few months prior to his visit that same year. In that address he said, "I call on the Irish people to transmit the treasures of their faith." The treasures of the faith that the Holy Father asks us to transmit are the same gifts that God bestowed on our forefathers, many generations ago. We recall them especially at this time of year.

October is Mission Month throughout the world. By means of Press, Radio and TV coverage as well as through mission sermons and lectures, people will be made aware of the needs of the millions of people who have not heard the Good News of Jesus Christ and of the Christian obligation to share the faith with them. Huge increases in world population together with dwindling priestly and religious vocations, have laid even greater stress on the role of every lay person to bring Christ to all the nations.

On Mission Sunday, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith asks us to respond once again to Pope John Paul's request calling on the Irish people to transmit to the non-Christian world the treasures of their faith. One of Ireland's greatest treasures is its missionary zeal and enthusiasm. In recent years however numbers have fallen greatly due to the great decline in vocations.

We know that Irish missionaries have gone out all over the world and wherever they have gone they have made the name of Ireland loved and honoured.

There is an obligation on all of us to pray for the missions of the church. In this month of October we will celebrate a special Mission Sunday mass. It is good to remember that St. Theresa/St. Thérèse of Lisieux, Patron of the Missions, did not go beyond the walls of her convent in Normandy, France. But her heart went out in prayer and she is numbered among the foremost of missionaries of all time. She used her talent, her great ability at prayer, and won a great reward.

We must see the propagation of the faith collection as an extension of this prayer. An appeal for the missions is reasonable if we profess to love God and believe in him. Few of us will ever see a 'Mission Field' much less work in one. Most of us, however, can make the sacrifice by making some contribution. The church is missionary. We are all missionaries. In this month of October let us try to make that real in our lives.

Reflection for Parents

It's unlikely that the lepers in today's Gospel weren't happy about being healed from a dreaded disease that isolated them from their family and friends. However, they never said thank you to Jesus. Maybe they were too busy, too excited, too preoccupied, or too thoughtless. As parents, we have certainly experienced a lack of gratitude from our children. We know they are truly grateful for their home, the food they eat, the bed they sleep in, the clothes they wear, the taxi service we provide and the hours we spend playing with them. But most kids are not often there with a big hug and "Thank You!" Yet, our love does not diminish in the carelessness of our children, just as God's healing did not disappear from the lepers. Likewise, even though we forget to thank God and praise him for all our rich blessings, healings, and mercy, the gift of love keeps coming, just as our love continues for our children.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

With gratitude in our hearts for all God's gifts, we pray:

Reader

For all our brothers and sisters throughout the world, that they may live in peace and joy.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who have made their home in other lands, and for all those who now seek a home in our country.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For all those who are sick or distressed this day, that they may be healed and comforted.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who work in Emigrant and Refugee Services, that they may continue their service with courage and faith.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

That those among us from other countries may experience true Christian kindness.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For Irish people who have died in foreign lands, and for all our beloved dead that they may be welcomed in their heavenly homeland.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

God our Father, giver of all good gifts, we praise you as we make these prayers in faith, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord.

Amen.

The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.

Lectio Divina Group

Some of the participants at the recent Week of Directed Prayer expressed a desire to join a Lectio Divina Group.

We already have a few groups operating in the parish but there is room for more.

This method of praying the bible has become very popular in recent years in Ireland and in many other parts of the world.

We invite anyone who is remotely interested in joining a prayer group to come to an Information Meeting on Monday 11th October at 8.00pm in the Annex to the Community Centre.

Lectio Divina means Sacred Reading. It is always based on the gospel for the coming Sunday. The meeting lasts for one hour and is held weekly (morning or night).

Feel free to come along to the meeting for information only. There will be no obligation to join a group.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

In the first reading, Naaman was healed from his leprosy. In those days, such sickness was thought of as evidence of sin. Therefore, to be healed was to be forgiven. Naaman's response is thanksgiving to the one true God.

Second Reading: 2 Tim 2:8-13

Paul says that Word of god cannot be chained. God's promise of final victory remains secure, no matter how great our suffering.

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Jesus healed ten lepers in today's Gospel, but only one (an unlikely one, at that!) came back to thank Jesus and give praise to God. Jesus wondered where the others were and why they didn't think to praise God for their healing.

SAINT OF THE WEEKSt. Margaret Mary 16-October-2004

St. Margaret Mary, visionary and ascetic, revived devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, exemplary in her patience and trust. She was born on 22nd July 1647 at L'Hautecour, Burgundy, France, was sent to the Poor Clares School at Charolles on the death of her father, a notary, when she was eight years old. She was bedridden for five years with rheumatic fever until she was fifteen and early developed a devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. She refused marriage, and in 1671 she entered the Visitation convent at Paray-le-Monial and was professed the next year. From the time she was twenty, she experienced visions of Christ, and on 27th December 1673 she began a series of revelations that were to continue over the next year and a half. In them Christ informed her that she was His chosen instrument to spread devotion to His Sacred Heart, instructed her in a devotion that was to become known as the Nine Fridays and the Holy Hour, and asked that the feast of the Sacred Heart be established. Rebuffed by her superior, Mother de Saumaise, in her efforts to follow the instruction she had received in the visions, she eventually won her over but was unable to convince a group of theologians of the validity of her apparitions, nor was she any more successful with many of the members of her community. She received the support of Blessed Claude La Colombiere, the community's confessor for a time, who declared that the visions were genuine. In 1683, opposition in the community ended when Mother Melin was elected Superior and named Margaret Mary her assistant. She later became Novice Mistress, saw the convent observe the feast of the Sacred Heart privately beginning in 1686, and two years later, a chapel was built at the Paray-le-Monial to honour the Sacred Heart; soon observation of the feast of the Sacred Heart spread to other Visitation convents. Margaret Mary died at the Paray-le-Monial on 17th October 1690, and was canonised in 1920. She, St. John Eudes, and Blessed Claude La Colombiere are called the "Saints of the Sacred Heart"; the devotion was officially recognised and approved by Pope Clement XIII in 1765, seventy-five years after her death.

It is those small human gestures of friendship and support that are important: the greeting in the street, the smile across the crowd, the occasional helping hand.
