Sunday 12-April-2015

Second Sunday of Easter
(Divine Mercy Sunday)

We are all a bit like Thomas, unless we see we find it difficult to believe. However, faith is a way of seeing, seeing beyond the apparent problems of life to the hope given by the Resurrection of Jesus; the hope of sharing heaven with Him.

Christ Our Light
Innishmore

Community of Faith

In the Gospel story, the disciples are in hiding behind locked doors when Jesus appears among them. His first greeting to his frightened apostles is: 'Peace be with you'. As if to reassure them, he shows them the wounds in his hands and side. They are overcome with joy. They receive from Jesus the gift of the Holy Spirit. The mission that was given to Him by his Father, he now passes on to them. "As the Father sent me, so I am sending you." They are to bring others to share their own experience of knowing and loving Jesus and being loved by him. One of the apostles, Thomas, was not present. When the disciples tell him that they have seen the Risen Jesus, his reaction is one of disbelief. Thomas is not exactly the trusting type! He wants proof and to see with his own eyes. Eight days later when Jesus comes amongst them again, Thomas meets the risen Christ and expresses his belief in God saying: 'My Lord and my God'. Jesus says: "You believe because you have seen me; happy are those who have not seen and yet believe". Perhaps during difficult times we too may doubt and question the presence of the Lord in our lives - yet Jesus has promised: I will be with you always to the end of time.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles we get a sense of what community and solidarity is all about. The first group of believers were united heart and soul, they were eager to share Jesus' love, supporting one another, and loving and caring for those around them. Everything they had was shared and all goods were held in common. Their spirit of sharing resulted in no one being in want.

Today we celebrate 'Divine Mercy Sunday'. Even though we profess our faith in the Risen Lord who died to take away our sins, we may at times doubt that God would really forgive us. God's love for us is far greater than any fault, failing or sin that we have. His mercy and forgiveness is his gift to us and he is just waiting for us to accept this gift and to fill us with his forgiveness, love and peace.

Sr. Colette

Thought for Today

Take a bucket and fill it with water.
Put your arms into it up to the wrists
Take them out and the hole that remains
Is the measure of how you'll be missed?
You may splash all you please when you enter;
You may stir up the water galore;
But stop and you'll find in a minute
That it looks just the same as before.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

As members of a believing and caring community, let us now bring our needs before God whose love has no end.

Reader

For the Church: that through its ministry people may experience the presence of Christ.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who are wounded emotionally or physically: that they may be delivered from pain and distress.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For those of weak faith or no faith.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For this community that we may be able to live in freedom, peace and joy.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For deceased relatives and friends: that the Lord may receive them into the kingdom of his glory.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For a moment, we remember in silence our own particular needs.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

God of love and mercy, you give strength to the weary, and new courage to those who have lost heart. Hear the prayers of all who call on you in any trouble, so that they may have the joy of receiving your help in their need. Amen.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19. Ps 4. 1 Jn 2:1-5. Lk 24:35-48. Lect I: 465

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Acts 4: 32-35
This is a description of life in the community of early Christians. Goods were shared but this sharing was always voluntary. The story of Ananias and Saphira makes it clear they were not bound to sell, and after they had the price was still theirs. However, the community of goods does not seem to have been very successful because we read elsewhere that rich and poor still existed in the community and Christians from other places had continually to send alms voluntarily to Jerusalem, ‘each man according to his ability’.

Second Reading: 1 John 5: 1-6
There are three dispositions necessary to being a Christian: to love the children of God, to love God and to keep his commandments. Jesus came ‘by water and by blood’. Water and blood are symbols and refer the one to the baptism of Christ, the other to his death.

Gospel: John 20: 19-31
The Church has perpetually understood the words of Jesus, “whose sins you forgive...” as the institution of the sacrament of Penance. The sacrament of pardon was instituted on the happiest day in the world’s history. Ever since it has brought a personal joy to believers as they feel the load of guilt lifted from them. The act of faith made by Thomas is the fullest and most explicit of all the confessions of faith recorded in the Gospels.

“Mothers’ Prayers”

A Prayer for those who suffer from Depression

Dear Jesus, I walk in the valley of darkness for I suffer from depression. I feel unloved, rejected, useless to myself and useless to others. I feel lost in a world I no longer understand. At times, I want to sleep and never wake up again. Lord, I believe that your love is a transforming love. Jesus, Son of David have pity on me.

Out of the depths, I cry to you. Lord, even though I feel nothing, I still praise you for the wonder of my being. You have formed me in my mother's womb and watched over me to this moment. I am precious in your eyes and you love me. On the Cross, you shed your blood for me. You have carved me on the palm of your hand. For all this I give you thanks and praise. May your precious blood give new life to me and to all those who suffer as I do. Take each one of us and hug us to your sacred and loving heart. Through your glorious wounds may we be healed.

Dear Jesus, when you fed the crowd in the desert, you wished to gather up the fragments lest anything be lost. As I wander through a desert and darkness of my own, I ask you to gather up the fragments of this shattered being, lest anything be lost. Through the prophet, Joel, you promise to restore the years that the locusts have eaten. I ask you, lay your hands gently on my weary head and restore me. Let your face shine upon me and give me back the peace, the joy that has been lost.

A Prayer to say...

Jesus, I believe in you. I know your words are true. Help me to see you in other people and to treat them with love. Amen..

In the Gospel today...

Jesus appears to his friends again. Today he speaks to Thomas, who did not believe that Jesus was alive. Thomas believes once he has seen Jesus. Jesus says that those who believe in him without even seeing him are blessed and happy.

I Feel It in the air

I know its Easter time again, I feel it in the air,
The breath of Spring with a woody tang, and new life everywhere,
And Spring glides on with magic touch, over mountainside and glen,
And wakens all the sleeping plants, for Easter time again.
The brooklets leap from rock to rock, as if in joyful play,
The flowers peep from darkened tombs to welcome Easter,
The birds are swinging on the boughs, and trill in ecstasy
They seem to show the world's great joy, of Easter mystery.
Why should we dread this thing called death? It's just an open door
Where all within is love and peace, and joy forever more.
"Because I live, you too shall live", we hear the Saviour say.
Lets consecrate our lives anew during this Easter time.
