Third Sunday of Advent

John the Baptist was sent by God to prepare for Christ's coming. His task was to make people attentive to the Spirit who would be fully present in God's anointed.

Christmas Attitudes

Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, John the Baptist shows us how. Anticipating the coming of Jesus, he cried, "prepare the way of the Lord." As we prepare a way for the Lord in our lives, we may reflect on what our attitudes to Christmas should be, our attitudes to life at this time. John preached repentance, a changing of attitudes from selfishness to generosity. Our Advent preparation must include striving for honesty and integrity. God comes to make a change for the better, his coming is something to be eagerly anticipated, he is coming to save us, to rescue us from sin, fear, unhappiness and death. And the Baptist tells us: "be content;" an attitude of contentment may not be in tune with our consumerist society, but it does bring happiness and the freedom to enjoy what we have. Jesus tells us that life is more than food and clothes, more than material goods.

Christmas is a time of giving, giving presents to those we love, giving gifts to those in need. It is a time of sharing; giving of our surplus to ensure others have food and clothes, have the basic necessities of life. We need to remember that religious observance without generous giving is worthless, and that it is more blessed to give than to receive. We wish each other "Happy Christmas," and St Paul says to the Philippians, and to us, that God wants us to be happy. "Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice." If we find our joy in the Lord, we will be without worry or fear, and experience a peace beyond human understanding, the peace of God. The promise of Jesus is: "My peace I leave you, my own peace I give you." And as we hope to rejoice in the peace of God this Christmas, it is good to remember that God rejoices in us. Zephaniah tells us that "He will exult in joy over you," that is, over us. We pray for an attitude of thankfulness, that our prayer may be from a thankful heart, grateful and gracious. We pray for an attitude of acceptance of God's salvation, of the message of Christ. As we pray for joy and peace this Christmas, we pray also that the peace of God will renew our attitudes and guard our hearts.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

St Paul tells us in the Second Reading: 'if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God with praise and thanksgiving'. Let us present our needs before the Lord:

Reader

For all who follow Christ; that they may be joyful in their following and enthusiastic in speaking of their faith.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For all who work in public service; that they may promote justice and support the most needy groups in society.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for the gift of tolerance; that we may learn to accept the perceived failings of others.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for those who are living in poverty; that those with something to eat may share with those who have nothing.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray that we may become more and more a community that actively cares for and protects the most vulnerable sections of our society.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith; that they may be raised to eternal life.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

Father in heaven, with you in our midst we have nothing to fear. Hear the prayers we make through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. Amen.

The SVP Annual Christmas Collection will be taken up at all Masses this weekend of 12th / 13th December. May we take this opportunity to thank our priests, sacristans, our church-gate collectors, the indoor church collectors and all who help in various ways and to whom we are greatly indebted.

We wish you all, Peace and Goodness for Christmas.

"Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.",
SVP Ballincollig

Third Sunday of Advent

We are a step nearer to our celebration of His coming. As we approach Him we must bring Him everything! Our dreams, our successes, our rejoicing. If we have little to rejoice over, bring Him that little. If you feel you have only empty hands - bring Him those empty hands. IN HIS HANDS ALL ARE MADE GOOD! "Let us rejoice in the Lord"

Sing and shout for joy for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

A Birthday Present for Baby Jesus

The plan is, during Advent, for each child to do an extra ‘job’ around the house to earn a coin (20c is the maximum allowed per child per week)

There will be a box to collect the coins in front of the altar at the Children’s Mass each week.

On the last Sunday of Advent we will count the money and the children, as a group, will choose a gift for that value (or thereabouts) from one of the charity gift catalogues.

The gift certificate will be brought to the altar at the Children’s Mass on Christmas Eve as a Birthday present for Baby Jesus from the children.

We have a number of aims in organising this project:

- To emphasise that Christmas is Jesus’ Birthday
- To show that Advent is a time for preparation for Christmas - and the little ‘jobs’ that the children do to help at home are a positive way to prepare.
- To show the children that they can make a difference.
- To show that small efforts, when joined together, can add up to something big.
- To encourage the children to think of those less fortunate.

If you would like to see the gifts available and maybe discuss them with your child - most of the charities have catalogues on their website.

The Gift of a Vegetable Garden

Joseph and Mary were forced to become refugees when they left Bethlehem for Egypt to protect Jesus. There are many millions of modern day refugees in our world today. On your behalf Trocaire tries to ensure their safety and survival. Trócaire gave Joseph (17), a young refugee, and his mother seeds, tools and training when they returned to their home after years living in a refugee camp in Uganda. Joseph grows beans, potatoes, millet, cabbage and egg-plant in his family’s vegetable garden. This year for €25 / £22 you can help many people in India plant seeds of hope.

To order your gift log onto www.trocaire.org/globalgift or call 1850 408 408 (ROI) 0800 912 1200 (NI)

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Zeph 3:14-18
The Lord your God is in your midst, a victorious warrior.

Second Reading: Phil 4:4-7
God asks us all to be happy through prayer.

Gospel: Luke 3:10-18
The crowds approached John the Baptist and asked how they should live in order to be ready to follow the Messiah. John responded by telling them to share and to not take more than they are entitled to. The people wondered if John might be the Messiah for whom they had been waiting, but he cleared up any misunderstanding by saying that he was not. For sure, the Messiah would come after John, but John was not worthy even to be the Messiah's slave who would untie his sandal.

Scout news

Last weekend the Scout Bazaar was held and once again the people of Ballinacollig and the Businesses rowed in behind us in donating goods for which we are very grateful and say a big Thank You. We would like also to thank all the Beavers, Maccoimh, Scouts, leaders and Parents who worked so hard over the weekend to make it a success.

All the sections are very busy, on the meeting nights the Maccoimh and scouts are learning knots such as figure of eight, clove hitch, and reef knot.

With Christmas coming this is what Baden-Powell had to say about Courtesy, a word and deeds which seems to have gone out of fashion.

“And look here! Here is a very important bit of courtesy that is often forgotten, but which a true Scout will never omit, and that is to thank for any kindness you receive. A present is not yours till you have thanked for it. You have not finished your camp, even if you have packed up your kit and cleaned up the ground, until you have thanked the owner for the use of it and have thanked God for giving you a good time. (1932)

Many a young Scout comes out of his shell because the rest of his Patrol egg him on.
