Sixth Sunday In Ordinary Time

A leper was an outcast, an untouchable. The love of Christ brought such people back into the community. We who follow Christ are called never to ostracise another, never to isolate those who don't fit into our ways. Our task is to help them along.

Jesus, Friend of Outcasts

I'd like to thank those of you who came along last Wednesday to take part the special liturgy to mark World Day of Sick. Thanks to those of you who made your own special effort and thanks to those who helped to bring a family member, relative, friend or neighbour. Thanks to all who supported our gathering in any way?

Today again in the Gospel Christ the Healer is again among the sick and this time stretches out his hands and touched the leper. It may seem an extreme example of Jesus' outreach to the sick. There's no logic to it. There are no rules. He's doing something new. He touches the leper. Wow. And the leper is cured. And then the odd reversal of lifestyle. The leper goes into community and Jesus is isolated and almost becomes a leper. And yet the community still seeks Him out and wants to be touched; touch His cloak; to be close.

The gesture of touch in our lives has particular connotations for many of us. Some like and others dislike. The gesture of touch can convey so much and in the right context it certainly conveys accompaniment, intimacy and oneness.

In recent days again we have seen local hospitals having to restrict visiting due to the presence of infection. The danger of touch or proximity to others increases the likelihood of the spread of infection. We have seen the terrible effects of Ebola in some parts of Africa. While many people died I have been struck by the equally harsh effects that Ebola has had on day to day lives. In recent interviews with an Irish missionary sister from Donegal she has spoken of the sheer devastation of the lives of family and communities. It is after the example of Christ the Healer that many are drawn to all sorts of disciplines to be there for those who are sick and in need. The Gospel is Good News as once again it tells us of the extraordinary events of the Incarnation.

Christ is speaking and acting with authority and so pushes the boundaries beyond the logic to the realm of mystery. The Incarnation, and our sharing in this incarnate presence by our words, touch, look, acknowledgement are signs and gestures which transmit something of the human and divine spirit, heart, love. There's to be, as I see it, in our living in family, community, society a desire for the good and the desire that creates presence and uplifts individually and collectively. Lord bless us in our gift of touch to others and through your Spirit of Wisdom and guidance let it always convey something of love and presence.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest

Let us bring our needs before the Lord who in his great compassion reached out to the leper and healed him.

Reader

For the Christian community: that it may be warm and caring towards those who society rejects.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For the human family: that God may bind its members in ties of friendship and mutual acceptance.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For prisoners, drug addicts, and all those who feel the pain of rejection.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For all gathered here: that the Lord may open our hearts and our eyes to those who suffer so that they may need not carry their cross alone.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

For a moment, we remember in silence our own particular needs

Lord, Hear us,
Lord, graciously hear us.

Priest

God of love and mercy, you know our weakness. May we reach out with joy to grasp the hand you stretch out to us in Christ, and so walk more readily in your ways. We make this prayer through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

You are my refuge, O Lord; you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Reflection for Parents

Not many things break the heart of a parent so quickly as seeing their child rejected by another person. Sometimes children are cruel and shun others or exclude them. Even more difficult are circumstances where adults or someone once trusted turn away from a child. Most of us don't witness these acts in our lives personally, but we certainly read about them in the paper or hear about them on the news. We get just a small glimpse of what it might have been like for the leper in today's gospel who was not even allowed to live with healthy people. We also better understand the courage and compassion of Jesus who touched the man and accepted him.

THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Leviticus 13: 1-2, 44-46
 The Hebrews always regarded leprosy as a contagious disease and perhaps as a punishment by God. This explains both the isolation of the diseased person and the necessity of ceremonial purification. In some societies AIDS is similarly regarded today.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10: 31- 11:1
 This is a cry for tolerance at a time when Christians who had come from the Jewish tradition tried to impose their customs on converts from paganism. The scrupulous are not entitled to impose their scruples on others. Tolerance and kindness must be mutual.

Gospel: Mark 1: 40-45
 Lepers were compelled to lead an isolated life, wearing a special garb, and giving notice of their approach by crying out: "Unclean", in order to prevent contagion. Jesus cured the man but spoke sternly to him because he had violated the prudent regulations by coming into contact with others who might receive the contagion.

Pancake Morning

Bishopstown Community Gardai will be hosting their annual Pancake Morning at the S. M.A centre Wilton from 9.30am till 2pm on 17 Feb 2015. Proceeds from the morning will go towards the Cork City Hospitals Children's Club.

A Prayer for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
 where there is injury, pardon;
 where there is doubt, faith;
 where there is despair, hope;
 where there is darkness, light;
 where there is sadness, joy.
 For it is in giving that we receive in pardoning that we are pardoned,
 and in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Muskerry Local History Society

The Society is presenting a very interesting lecture by Richard Wood on the Great Houses of County Cork & Beyond. This illustrated lecture will examine the architecture and lifestyle of some of the great houses from our own locality and further afield. The lecture will be held in Ballincollig Rugby Club at 8.00 pm on Monday, 16 February, 2015.

Children's Corner

A Prayer to say...
 Dear Jesus, thank you for loving me. Help me to share your love with everyone, especially anyone who is left out. Help me to be brave like you were and to include everyone. Amen.

In the Gospel today...
 A man with a skin disease asked Jesus to make him well Jesus felt sorry for the leper and healed him. Jesus asked the man not to tell anyone, but to go to the priest and show that he was cured. The man told everybody! Lots of people came from all around to find Jesus so that he could heal them.

Lourdes Young Adult Helpers

Over the years Cork and Ross Lourdes Pilgrimage has extended a special invitation to Young Adults (18-30 year olds) to consider giving five days to come to Lourdes and join the Diocese as helpers. This is a unique opportunity to journey together in faith to pray to Our Lady at the shrine where she appeared to Bernadette in 1858.

Our Young Adult Helpers always excel in their attention to our sick pilgrims, and without our team of helpers the sick could not come to Lourdes. This year the group of new and first time helpers is confined to a group of 25 young adults, and enquiries and bookings by the 28th February 2015 are to be made directly to:
