THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Ex. 32:7-11. 13-14
 God hears our prayer for mercy.

Second Reading: 1 Tim. 1:12-17
 Paul reminds us that Jesus came for sinners.

Gospel: Luke 15:1-32
 In an attempt to show the people that God will forgive and accept sinners into the Kingdom, Jesus told three parables about being lost and then found. The first parable was about a shepherd who had one hundred sheep but lost one. The shepherd searched until he found the lost lamb. There was much celebration on the part of the shepherd and his neighbours because something lost was found. The second parable concerned a widow who searched her house until she found a lost piece of silver. Finally, Jesus told the parable of the prodigal son who squandered his share of his inheritance and went home to beg his father to let him be a worker. Instead, the father was so thrilled to see this son who had been lost to him that he threw a big party. All three of these parables illustrate the joy that will be in heaven when one lost sinner is found.

SAINT OF THE WEEK
St. Cornelius 16-September-2004

There was no pope for 14 months after the martyrdom of St. Fabian because of the intensity of the persecution of the Church. During the interval, the Church was governed by a college of priests. St. Cyprian, a friend of Cornelius, writes that Cornelius was elected pope "by the judgment of God and of Christ, by the testimony of most of the clergy, by the vote of the people, with the consent of aged priests and of good men."

The greatest problem of Cornelius's two-year term as pope had to do with the Sacrament of Penance and centred on the readmission of Christians who had apostatised during the time of persecution. Two extremes were finally both condemned. Cyprian, primate of Africa, appealed to the pope to confirm his stand that the relapsed could be reconciled only by the decision of the bishop (against the very indulgent practice of Novatus). In Rome, however, Cornelius met with the opposite view. After his election, a priest named Novatian (one of those who had governed the Church) had himself consecrated a rival Bishop of Rome—the first antipope. He denied that the Church had any power to reconcile not only the apostates, but also those guilty of murder, adultery, fornication or second marriage! Cornelius had the support of most of the Church (especially of Cyprian of Africa) in condemning Novatianism, though the sect persisted for several centuries. Cornelius held a synod at Rome in 251 and ordered the "relapsed" to be restored to the Church with the usual "medicines of repentance."

The friendship of Cornelius and Cyprian was strained for a time when one of Cyprian's rivals made accusations about him. But the problem was cleared up.

A document from Cornelius shows the extent of organisation in the Church of Rome in the mid-third century: 46 priests, seven deacons, seven sub deacons. It is estimated that the number of Christians totalled about 50,000.

Cornelius died as a result of the hardships of his exile in what is now Civitavecchia (near Rome).

Start of New Season

Welcome back to one and all, here is hoping that you had an enjoyable summer and managed to get some break from the routine of work and more labouring in the home. Pupils and teachers are settling into school. New books, new rooms not to mention new schools takes some time to become accustomed to. Well done to the many young people from Ballincollig who completed second level and sat the various exams; I wish them well in their careers or further education.

Sunday 29th August, The Rev William Paul Olhausen, was instituted as rector of the Carrigrohane Union of Parishes. I was privileged to be able to attend a very impressive ceremony at St Peter's Church, Carrigrohane. I welcome Rev William, his wife Tanya and family to Carrigrohane, Ballincollig; I look forward to working alongside him in trying to build the Lord's kingdom.

Ballincollig community school has a new principal. I take this opportunity to wish M/s Lowney well in her new position, and I am certainly looking forward to working with her and of being any assistance to the staff and pupils.

The Gospel reading this week is the parable of the Prodigal son. The son is determined to head off from who cares most for him, yet the father waits patiently and with compassion for his son's return. Life entails lots of waiting, may we in our anxiety wait patiently and with trust and compassion.

Fr. George
